

This is a copy of an email I just sent to Gov. Codey of NJ

The request of business to be able to continue to contact people with whom they have done business within the past 18 months is reasonable. I think you should reconsider your opposition to this FCC requirement.

As a small business person, I routinely recontact folks that I have done business with over the past three to five years with a personal call. Many of the jobs I get to do (in New Jersey) come from repeat business. If I am precluded from calling my prior customers because they are on a list, I can no longer grow my business.

Thank you for your consideration.